BAT NELSON HAS BITTER HATRED FOR JOE GANS

In an Interview He Tells What He Will Do to the Champion When They Meet Again -Going to England To-Morrow.

FOUND Eattling Nelson at the take on a fight with the best lightweight in England. I don't know who They may have to get out Jabez White again. I hope they'll have some good one. After that I'm going all over Europe. I'll wind up at me in Denmark. My father is coming over to join me then. You know he was a great friend of the late King. Oh, yes; we'll see the King, of course. I intend to give him a good exhibition of sparring while I'm there Then you won't hurry tack to fight Gans?" I asked.

"I'll fight Gans any time he's ready," snapped the Dane. "I'm not begging for a match, like Rickard suys, but you can write it down that I'm not dodging Gans either. I'd jump right back across the ocean to get him. If I ever do get him again it will be Gans's last fight, too."

HEN he said this the Battling

Gans. He's a great fighter! But I was whipping him in Goldfield when they give me the bunk, and I know I con lick him next time. He knows it, too! "Now, look here! There are four good lightweights in America just now. I mean four in the first division—four that can fight among themselves and be well matched. Gans, myself, Herman and Memsic out in Chicago. Memsic is a wonder. He licked Neary in two rounds. He can walton something fierce. The only fool thing about Memsic is that he tried to change, his milme to Jiminy Burns. That was a sucker play. Tommy Murphy. Baldwin and the rest are in the second strick.

"Gans," went or Battling, "is at the top just now. So am I. Herman comes next, and Memsic could give any of us B fight.

"Herman; and, mind you, I think Gans where the fighter still. But this little kild Herman has a good wallop, and if kild Herman has a good wallop, if kild Herman has a good wallop, and if kild Herman has a good wallop, if kild H
